1. Copyrights and ancillary copyrights

The contents of this website are subject to the copyright of the domain owner. Copyright protection covers, in particular, the content and structure of this website, any images, videos, logos, graphics, texts, animations, sounds and labels, as well as their arrangement within this website. Any use thereof without the advance consent of the domain owner is not permitted. This applies, in particular, to reproductions, translations and any form of electronic processing.

This website and its contents were compiled with the utmost care. However, no liability is assumed for the correctness of the texts and representations on this website. Should you think that the contents or design of this website infringe upon third party rights or statutory regulations, we ask you to inform us accordingly without involving a lawyer. We undertake to examine the complaint and, if we establish that an infringement exists, to remove the corresponding content immediately without requiring you to involve a lawyer.

2. External Links

The internet site of the domain owner can, without the latter's knowledge, be linked to other website via hyperlinks. The owner assumes no responsibility for the contents and representations on third-party websites, or for any relevant links on third-party websites.

3. Unsolicited advertising

The use of the contact data in the legal notice for promotional purposes is not desired, unless the website owner has issued its advance consent thereto. The website owner and all persons named on this website hereby object to the use of their data for commercial purposes and to the forwarding thereof to third parties.

4. Special conditions of use

If special conditions for individual cases of use of this website deviate from items 1 to 4, then express reference in this respect will be made at the relevant place. In such cases, the respective special conditions of use apply.

Security notice:

We do our utmost to store data in such a way as to prevent access by third parties, using all technical and organisational options available. However, we cannot guarantee full data security for email communication.

The website operator expressly states that data transfer on the internet (e.g. email communication) is subject to security gaps and cannot be fully protected from access by third parties. We therefore recommend that you send confidential data by post.

Data privacy statement

We are pleased about your interest in our website. Despite conducting careful checks of our content, we cannot assume any liability for links to third-party websites. We do our utmost to ensure the protection of your data when recording, processing and using them within the context of your visit to our site. Your data are subject to protection as per the pertinent statutory regulations. In the following, you will find information on which data are recorded during your visit to this website, and how they are used:

This website uses Google Analytics, a web analysis service of Google Inc. ("Google"). Google Analytics uses so-called "cookies", text files that are saved on your computer and which make it possible to analyse your use of this website. The information generated by cookies concerning the use of this website is generally transferred to a Google server in the USA, where it is stored. If you activate the IP anonymisation on this website, then Google will shorten your IP address within EU member states and in other countries party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area. Only in exceptional cases will the full IP address be transferred to the Google server in the USA and be shortened there.

Google will use this information to, on behalf of the website operator, analyse your use of the website and generate reports about website activities. It will then use the results to provide the website operator with further services related to website and internet use. The IP address transmitted by your browser for purposes of Google Analytics will not be connected to other Google data. You can prevent the storage of cookies by activating the respective browser setting. However, please note that, if you choose to do this, you will not be able to use all the functions on this website. You can also prevent Google from using cookies to record and process data relating to your use (incl. your IP address) by downloading and installing the browser plugin accessible via this link:
